Language is indispensable to humans. It helps us share our thoughts, express our emotions, and understand one another. Without language, we wouldn't be able to build relationships or learn from others. Over time, languages have gradually developed, changing in sounds, grammar, and vocabulary. That's why the way people speak today is often very different from how their grandparents spoke.

Around the world, there are thousands of languages. Some are spoken by millions of people, while others are used by only a small group. Sadly, many of these smaller languages are disappearing. When a language dies, we also lose part of a culture and history. That's why many specialists are working hard to protect endangered languages before they are lost forever.

Not all languages are spoken with voices. Sign languages use hand movements and facial expressions to share meaning. They are used by people who are deaf or hard of hearing and are just as rich and meaningful as spoken ones.

Learning another language can also help you personally. It can boost your self-confidence, strengthen your brain and help you understand different cultures. In today's global world, speaking more than one language can help you open doors in both life and work.

Question 31. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Sign languages are more useful than spoken languages.
- B. Language connects people and changes across history.
- C. Only major languages help people in daily situations.
- D. Language is used only for speaking with other people.

Question 32. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. The way people speak today is often the same as how their grandparents spoke.
- B. The way people speak today is often like how their grandparents spoke.
- C. The way people speak today is often similar to how their grandparents spoke.
- D. The way people speak today often differs from how their grandparents spoke.

- A. They are only used in small schools abroad.
- B. They are easier to understand than grammar.
- C. They use hands and faces to show meaning.
- D. They cannot express feelings in daily life.

Question 35. According to the passage, the word "boost" is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

- A. improve                      B. reduce                      C. lessen                      D. worsen

Question 36. Why do a lot of experts want to protect small languages according to the passage?

- A. Because their disappearance means losing culture and history.
- B. Because they help people travel easily to new places.
- C. Because their speakers often forget how to use them.
- D. Because they are spoken in places with no written signs.
